

Regional Resource Development Manager Latin America and the Caribbean

Gross Salary: COP $6.500.000

Contract: 1 year Fixed term local Contract with possibility of extension

Location: Bogotá-Colombia

HelpAge International's vision is a world where older people fulfil their potential to lead active, dignified, healthy and secure lives. We are the secretariat of the HelpAge global network, bringing together more than 114 affiliates and 200 partners working with older people in over 50 countries.

The Regional RD Manager will have the primary function of raising funds to support the work of the network in Latin America region. A secondary function will be to recover the costs of HelpAge's regional and sub-regional presences.

The ideal candidate will be a person with graduate degree in International Development / Relations, Project Management, Social Sciences or a related field, OR an acceptable combination of university degree and work experience related to the duties and specific areas of competence required by the position. The candidate may also have a significant regional experience in fundraising in a competitive environment.

The full Job description is attached. To apply, please send an updated CV and covering letter outlining how you meet the required criteria to Marcela Bustamante email: marcela.bustamante@helpagela.org

Please note that Applications will be reviewed as received until 16th March, 2018. We therefore encourage you to put forward your application as early as possible. The interviews will be in English on skype between March 19th and 23rd.

HelpAge International is an equal opportunities employer.

HelpAge International is committed to providing our staff with continuous professional development, flexible working and opportunities to thrive within an inclusive and diverse environment. As part of our commitment to promoting gender diversity, we are a member of the Business in the Community gender campaign.